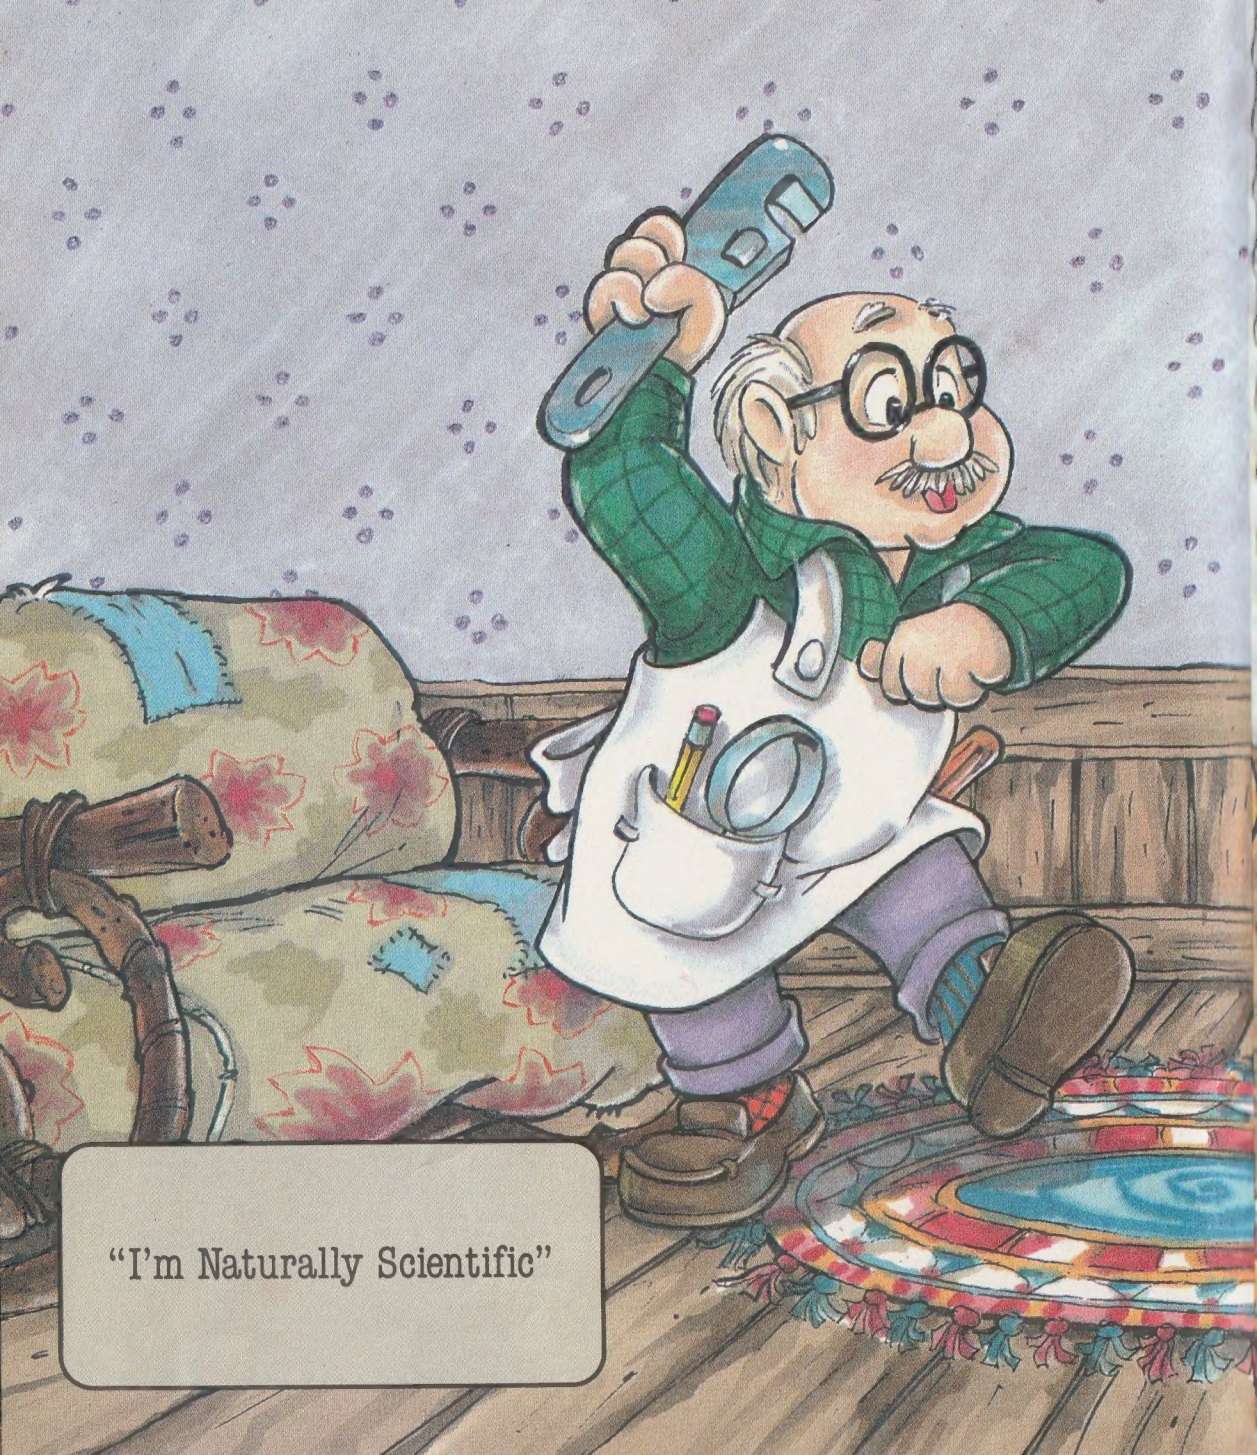
It all started one morning when Grubby and I returned to Gimmick's house after a walk.

This invention is entirely different.



"I'm Naturally Scientific"

This is the Multiplication Table...the world's first duplicator!

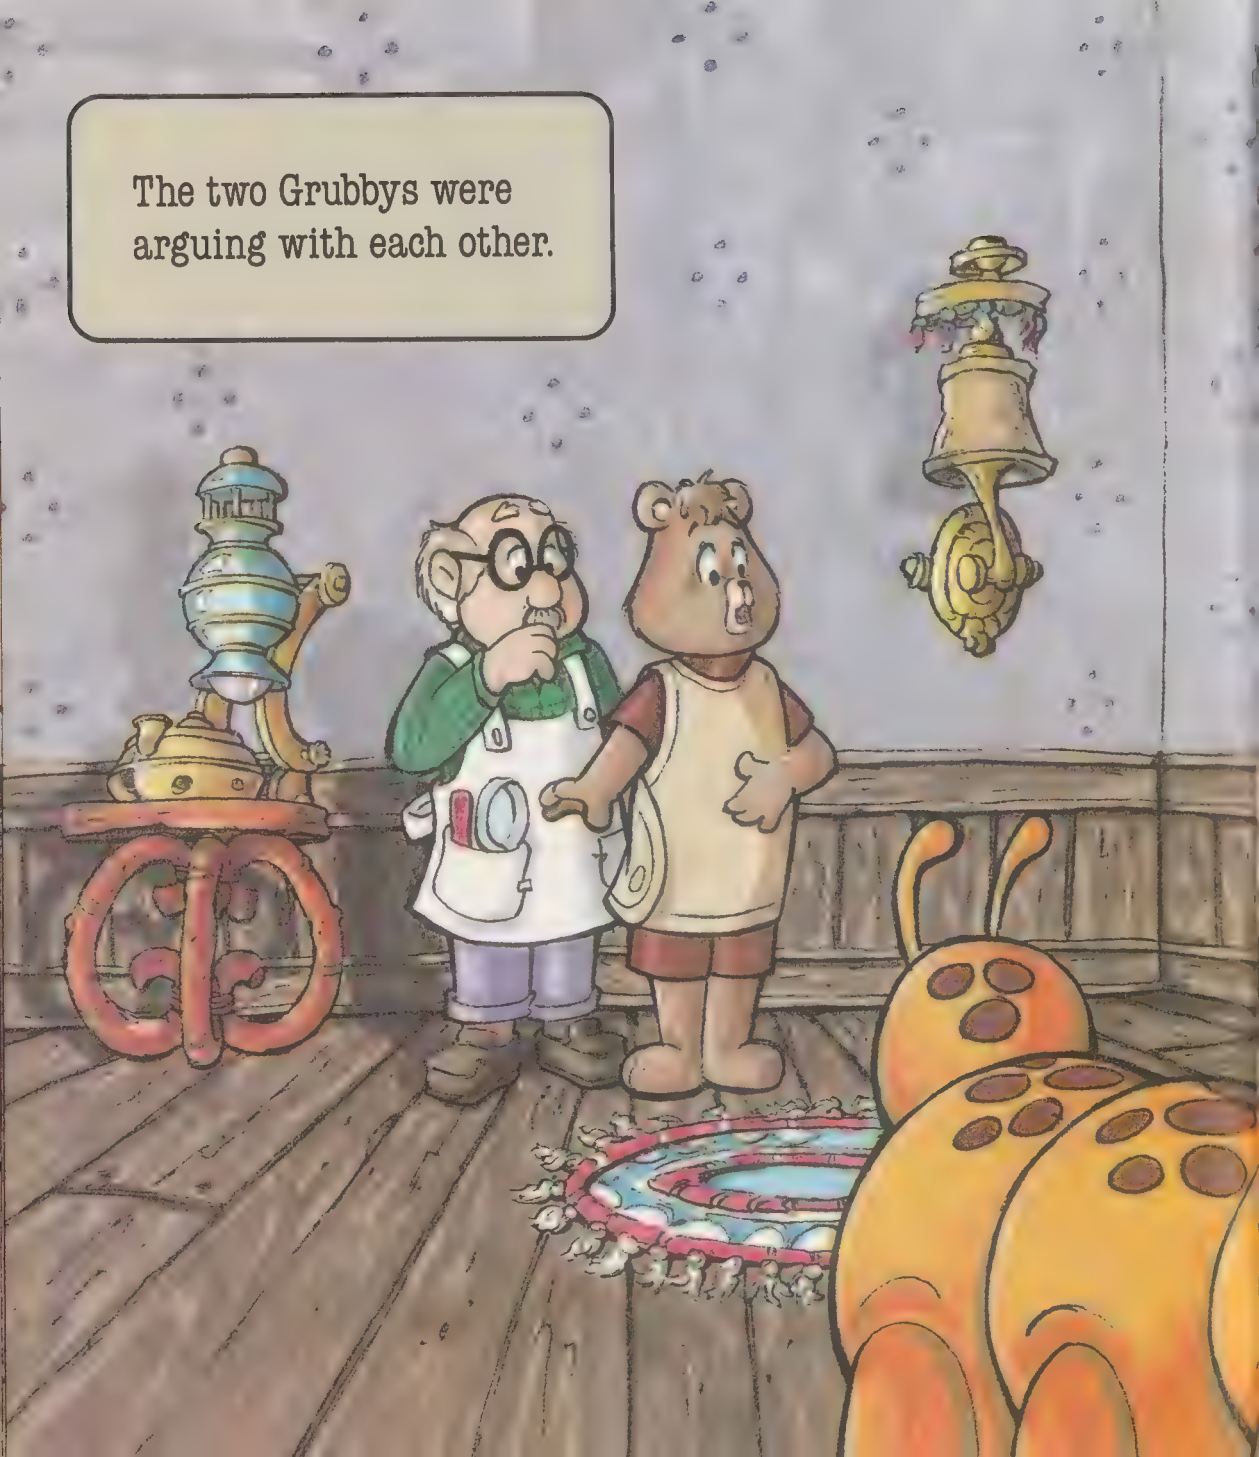
A banana! Oh, heavens to Grundo! Something must be slightly off.

O.K. Gimmick, now try it.

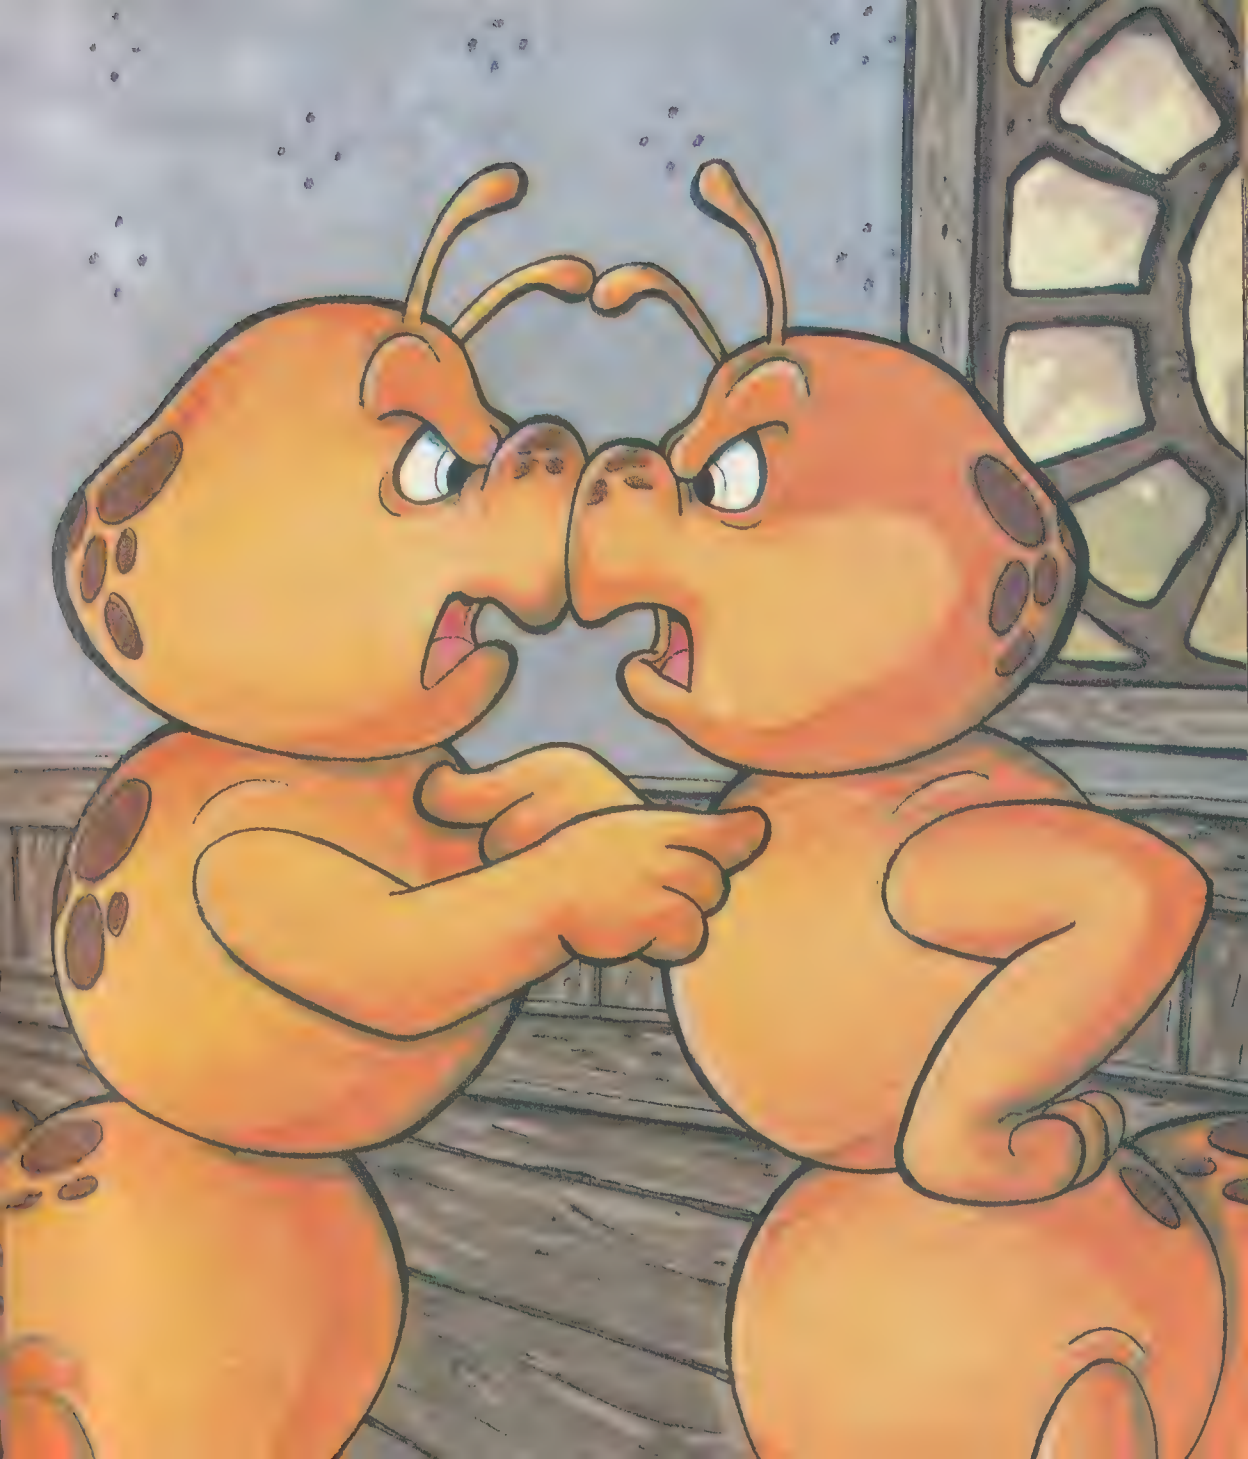
While I helped Gimmick reset the controls, Grubby wandered off.

Oh, hiya fellas! What's goin' on?

There are two Grubbys!



The two Grubbys were arguing with each other.



The duplicate Grubby started to go in and out of focus.

I'm better at being me than anybody.
